

Visual Story Guide

Arriving at the SEC and going to the IRN-BRU Carnival

www.irn-bru-carnival.com

The venue

The IRN-BRU Carnival is located at the Scottish Event Campus (SEC) in Glasgow.

You can get there by car, bus, taxi, bike, train or walking.

www.irn-bru-carnival.com

When you arrive

When you arrive, go to the main entrance. It may be busy.

Staff may ask to check your bag. This is normal and helps keep everyone safe.

www.irn-bru-carnival.com

Inside the building

When you enter, you will walk up the main walkway (called the concourse).

There may be lots of people and it may be loud.

www.irn-bru-carnival.com

Tickets

If you have your tickets on your phone, you can go to any entrance.

Show your tickets to a steward. They will scan it and let you in.

www.irn-bru-carnival.com

Tickets

If you still need to buy tickets, go to the Admissions Hall.

Look for signs or ask a steward for help

A staff member at the ticket desk will help you buy tickets. It might be busy here

www.irn-bru-carnival.com

Going into Carnival

Go to the Carnival entrance.

A steward will scan your ticket.

It may be noisy and crowded inside

www.irn-bru-carnival.com

Need help?

If you need any help when you are at Carnival, just ask a staff member and they will help you.

If you need any help before you come, you can email info@qdevents.co.uk

www.irn-bru-carnival.com